Refusal of Unsafe Work

Worker reports to Supervisor immediately Worker agrees situation is safe and issue resolved. supervisor/employer an unsafe investigates the unsafe work work process or practice they process/practice and resolves if possible. Outcome believe will cause an undue Worker still views work as unsafe. hazard if performed. communicated to worker. Situation is resolved to satisfaction of worker. Supervisor will investigate further with worker; plus a worker member of the JOHSC/a worker selected by individual that is refusing unsafe work. Worker still continues to refuse work. Supervisor is obligated to contact WorkSafeBC to make a decision. WorkSafeBC officer will deem if circumstances are Health and Safety department may assist with finding a resolution. safe or unsafe. Employer complies with Situation is resolved and Supervisor can: order(s) and situation is WorkSafeBC determines · Assign worker to alternative work work is safe. corrected. • Determine if work is suitable for another worker so long as worker is aware of work refusal WorkSafeBC determines work is unsafe for individual. Order is written to correct unsafe work.

